War opponent Kerry seeks Congress seat

Antiwar leader John Kerry announced his candidacy yesterday for the vacated 5th District Congressional seat.

The 28-year-old Navy veteran stressed his opposition to the war in South-east Asia in his candidacy statement, a position which has gained him national attention.

Kerry placed the end of the war as the primary issue in his campaign for the Democratic nomination for the seat vacated by Republican Rep. F. Bradford Morse. Morse recently was named to a position with the United Nations.

Kenny has led the Vietnam Veterans Against the War since returning from Vietnam two years ago.

He said the war was not the only issue. With unemployment plaguing the Lowell-Lawrence area, (about 80 percent of the Democratic registration in the district) he said plans must be made for conversion from a war-time to a peacetime economy.

Kerry enters a race which is likely to contain a number of candidates, both on the Democratic and Republican side. Several persons have announced candidacies and others are considering the race.

[REDACTED] was overheard to discuss what had occurred earlier in the day. [REDACTED] mentioned that there had been much talk on the Miami Beach convention, but not much had been accomplished. [REDACTED]

On the morning of May 28, 1972, the group sat around and rapped. Scott Camil showed a wrist rocket that is to be used by VVAW people and some other demonstrators who will take part in trashing activities at the national political conventions at Miami Beach. It was observed that the wrist rocket is a type of sling shot that can be used by hand to sling small fishing weights, marbles or ball bearings as ammunition.

During the rap session that occurred during the afternoon of May 28, 1972, it was learned that the Southern Regional VVAW groups will make an effort to change the location of the next National Steering Committee meeting of the VVAW from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to either Miami or Gainesville, Florida. The only way this change can be made is by sending out questionnaires to all VVAW State Coordinators asking them to vote on the proposed change of location. It was the consensus of opinion of those in attendance that the National Steering Committee meeting should be held at Gainesville, after which those in attendance can proceed to Miami for the national political conventions. It was mentioned that the National Steering Committee meeting will be held about one week prior to the Republican Convention in August.

MAY 27 - 28, 1972

It was mentioned that Scott Canal has reserved a place on Miami Beach for VVAW members to camp during the conventions. The exact location was not mentioned.

It was brought out that not too many from the VVAW will go to Miami for the Democratic Convention in July, but a large number of VVAW demonstrators will participate in demonstrations at the Republican Convention. The VVAW plans to keep things cool during the Democratic Convention.

Little mention was made of the proposed trip of a VVAW group to Hanoi, North Vietnam. Those in attendance appeared upset that the National VVAW Office in New York City had sent only one letter to Hanoi regarding the trip and failed to send a follow-up letter when no reply was received from Hanoi to the first letter reportedly sent following the VVAW National Steering Committee meeting in Houston, Texas, during April 7 - 11, 1972.

RE: VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW)

NOTE:

Jacksonville has submitted comprehensive LHM reporting results of VVAW Southern Regional Meeting, Gainesville, Florida, 5/27-29/72, which contains significant information from various Bureau informants who are furnishing top level and reliable information concerning VVAW activities. LHM has been submitted unclassified and it is being classified "Confidential" since unauthorized disclosure of information could be prejudicial to national defense interests by compromising sources of continuing value. LHM also submitted without FBI property statement. Recipients of LHM being instructed to amend copies. Department currently considering grand jury action against VVAW leaders for possible violations of Federal antiriot statutes and other Federal violations. Specific information included in LHM, which, if corroborated through independent investigation, could assist Federal prosecution of VVAW leaders, being brought to attention of Jacksonville with instructions to attempt verification. Intensive investigation continuing concerning violence-prone VVAW in Florida.

SLING SHOT

Shooting Instructions

1. Stance

Do not face the target but rather stand at a right angle to the target. Have your weight on both feet and knees comfortably apart.

2. Loading the sling

Bring your hand back as shown in the picture as the pouch hangs down evenly. You will now find it easy to load. Make sure the pellet is well centered in the pouch. The pouch should be gripped between the thumb and index finger, with the pouch centered between the first and second joint of your finger.

3. Drawing

Extend the left arm (for a right hand shooter) directly toward the target. Straighten the arm out almost straight but not rigid, just slightly flexed. Hold the sling horizontal. After a great deal of practice it will be all right to swing the sling slightly. However it is much harder to swing it the same amount when flexed than it is to hold it steady. Any slight change in the angle of cast will send your shot. Now pull the pouch back holding the left elbow parallel to the sling ribbons. Take a deep breath as you draw down back smoothly—try to develop rhythm.

4. Anchoring

Various anchoring devices can be used with equally satisfactory results. The important thing is to have the pouch in the same position in relation to your aiming eye each time. A very good anchor is shown here with the second joint of the thumb cast into the hollow of your hand. Make sure you have the fingers of your right hand spread against your chest. The release. Simply ease off the tension holding the pouch. The tip is slipped between the index finger and the thumb, thus giving the pouch an extra jerk as you release.

5. Follow through

Be certain to hold your position momentarily after releasing. It is easy to get into the habit of swinging the sling back as you release and spoiling your shot.

After you have the fundamentals well in hand the next thing to think of is aim. Using the anchor described the top point of the sling should be brought approximately on to the target. This will vary a little on individual to another.

Instructions for shooting

SAFETY RULES

1. Never shoot your slingshot ammunition toward a person.
2. Always be sure you know where the pellet or stone will land. Do not shoot toward a building, a person, or at anything you do not want to hurt or damage.
3. Always inspect your power bands and pouch to make certain they are in good working order.
4. Remember . . . the rocket sling shot is not a toy. It is dangerous when used by an irresponsible person.
5. Always shoot round ammunition and center the ammunition in the pouch.
6. Protect your right to enjoy your slingshot by being careful and sure when you shoot.

AFTER LONG USE, rubbers may wear out. Replace most rubbers of the same quality as original equipment are obtainable from your WRIST-ROCKET dealer. They are easy to install. Simply moisten ends of prong and slip on. Allow to set one half hour before using. If replacement rubbers are not available from your dealer, set $1.00 to Saunders for each replacement assembly.

SHOOT YOUR SLINGSHOT INDOORS WITH THIS HOME MADE TARGET, AND BECOME AN EXPERT. Use small marbles for Ammo, over and over again.

SPORT THE WHOLE FAMILY CAN ENJOY . . .

Only by shooting well will you enjoy your slingshot to the fullest. A slingshot used properly is an accurate and deadly weapon. It will give you hours of fun cracking away at a target or filling your game bag to the limit if you learn to use it right.

There are other methods of shooting than the one we are outlining. Many shooters are quite accurate with their own system. However you can learn faster with this system, and if faithfully followed you will be hitting bulls-eyes most of the time after only a few hundred shots. Practice each part and each step until you do it right automatically. Practice each move until you do it in a smooth relaxed and natural manner. Practice each part until you do it without thinking.

Start close to the target. Concentrate on form, and you have it completely mastered. Then you can begin to worry about scores and about moving back from the target ten yards or more.

Accuracy depends upon doing every step, every part the same, shot after shot. Just shooting is not practicing and will not necessarily improve your score. You may just be practicing your old errors over and over again. Practicing will only help you when you are practicing with the proper technique. Practice relaxed. Tensed up muscles will spoil your score even if you have everything else correct. Besides it is just more fun that way.

To determine if you should pull the sling with the right or left eye check to see which is your strong eye. Hold your finger up and sight on something. Now close one eye at a time. Your finger will remain lined up with one eye but be thrown off with the other. The eye that keeps your finger lined up on the object is the strong eye. If your right eye is the strongest eye pull the pouch with the right arm and vice versa. By shooting this way you can keep both eyes open. This is a big advantage especially when shooting over

Re Miami airtel to the Bureau, 6/1/72, captioned "VVAW; IS-RA"; Bulet to Albany, 4/28/72, captioned "VVAW; IS-RA".

Enclosed for the Bureau are 5 copies of an LHM, dated as above and captioned "VVAW - Greater Miami". Two copies of this LHM are enclosed for the New York Office, VVAW office of origin. Two information copies are enclosed for Jacksonville, one each for the files of [redacted] (OO: Jacksonville) and VVAW.

Referenced Bulet requested VVAW survey in each division. Individual cases were to be opened on separate chapters and LHMs promptly submitted reporting results of investigation. As set out in enclosed LHM, the VVAW - Greater Miami chapter covers Dade County. VVAW activity in adjoining Broward County until recently, had been minimal. There are currently, however, approximately 15 VVAW members in that area and they are considered to constitute a separate chapter although their public activities are conducted almost entirely in Dade County, in conjunction with captioned chapter. Miami has opened a case on VVAW - Broward County (MM 100-16748) and has opened cases on individual members of this group. There are no other VVAW chapters in the Miami Division per contacts with Resident Agencies and their contacts with local authorities.

Enclosed LHM is classified "Confidential" because it contains information from [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] which could reasonably result in these sources being identified should the information be revealed without authorization. Identification of these sources would be detrimental to the National defense interests.

There is no indication that any subversive organization is attempting to gain control of the VVAW - Greater Miami. The Socialist Workers Party (SWP), which through its youth arm, the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA), has made efforts to influence other VVAW chapters, has made no such attempts with VVAW - Greater Miami. It is noted, however, that the SWP and YSA are virtually non-existent in the Miami area.

Results of investigation disclose VVAW - Greater Miami to be ineffectual. It has no funds, no fixed meeting place and shifting leadership. The activities of this group are few and poorly coordinated. The group generally must align itself with several other local peace activist groups to ensure at least a modest turnout for a planned activity.

VVAW - Greater Miami has conducted no activity in which there was so much as a threat of violence. None of its activities has resulted in arrests.

It is felt, however, that SCOTT CAMIL, VVAW Southeast Regional Coordinator and head of a militant VVAW chapter at Gainesville, Florida, could be the catalyst to effect a radical change in the VVAW - Greater Miami. CAMIL has proven leadership abilities and, as the Bureau is aware, has indicated on a number of occasions that he will provoke violent confrontations with authorities at the upcoming national political conventions on Miami Beach. Although CAMIL is wont to exaggerate concerning threatened violent acts, and reportedly at times makes up threats to observe subsequent reactions on the part of authorities as a means of exposing informants within his group, there is no doubt that CAMIL is capable of violence and/or inciting to violence. He is currently in the Miami area for one week and will return from Gainesville prior to the Democratic Convention. He is expected to bring with him close associates from the VVAW chapter in Gainesville. He may also attempt to recruit VVAW - Greater Miami members for his convention plans.

Miami is aware of the CAMIL potential for violence and will follow his convention activities closely. In this regard, it is noted that  b2 b7c b7D

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW) - GREATER MIAMI

The Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) is a national veterans organization with headquarters at New York, New York. Its published primary objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and the withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina."

ORGANIZATION

VVAW - Greater Miami, Florida, is a chapter of VVAW, Inc., a national organization with headquarters in New York City. VVAW - Greater Miami includes the City of Miami and contiguous Dade County communities. Formerly, this VVAW chapter included Hollywood and Fort Lauderdale, both Broward County, Florida, in its membership area. There are currently sufficient members in Broward County to constitute a distinct chapter, which holds its own meetings and conducts its own activities, though these are very limited. The two chapters, though autonomous, assist each other in conducting demonstrations, anti-war leaflet distributions, etc. In almost all cases this involves Broward County VVAW members traveling to Dade County for such activities, there being little "action" of this type in Broward County.

Miami Snowplow, also known as Operation Snowplow or simply Snowplow, was a non-politically oriented coalition of 22 organizations founded at Miami, Florida, in January, 1972, to seek community cooperation in providing for the needs of "non-delegates" expected to gather at Miami Beach for the political conventions this Summer. Snowplow held weekly public meetings in an effort to generate local support and funding. Snowplow disbanded itself in May, 1972, alleging lack of community cooperation and no prospects for suitable funding.

The Peace Center of Miami is the local education office of the American Friends Service Committee. Several other anti-war groups utilize the premises, at least occasionally.

FUNDS

VVAW - Greater Miami is virtually without funds and has no prospects for obtaining funds. New members are requested, but not required, to pay a $5.00 membership fee. Even if this is paid, not reportedly the usual case, the fee is forwarded to the VVAW National Office, New York City. Members are urged to purchase VVAW buttons for 25¢ each. Few are purchased. VVAW leaflets are usually "ripped off" from the South Florida Peace Action Coalition (SFPAC); that is why SFPAC prints the leaflets and asks VVAW - Greater Miami for reimbursement at cost. The chapter obtains the leaflets and promises to pay later, with no real intention of doing so. There is no attempt to collect dues from members and no efforts made to raise funds from the general public.

The SFPAC is affiliated with the National Peace Action Coalition (NPAC) in opposition to the war in Indochina.

NPAC was founded in 1970 by members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). Its basic objective is to unite masses of people including labor unions, GI's and the black community in the struggle to end U.S. intervention in Indochina through orderly and peaceful tactics. The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

ACTIVITIES

A. Anti-Vietnam War Leaflet Distribution

On April 15, 1972, the local VVAW will pass out anti-war leaflets at Miami area shopping centers, including Dadeland (South Miami) and Westland (Hialeah). The group does not plan any demonstrations as such. Assistance in this activity from a women's peace group is hoped for.

[REDACTED] 62-670
4/14/72 / 4

On April 15, 1972, BRUCE FARRELL and JIM HALE, in jungle fatigues, accompanied by a male teenager, distributed copies of an anti-war leaflet at the Dadeland Shopping Center, South Miami. It was indicated in the leaflet that further information could be had by writing: "Vietnam Veterans Against the War, c/o Center For Dialogue, 2175 N.W. 26th Street, Miami, Florida, PH. 247-2148". There was no demonstration, no incidents or arrests. FARRELL and HALE advised a Dade County Public Safety Department (DCPSD) Deputy that later the same day they would distribute leaflets at the Westland Shopping Center, Hialeah.

The Center For Dialogue uses facilities on the property of St. John's Lutheran Church. Under the direction of Rev. OLSON the center tends to serve as "neutral ground" for encounters among persons unlikely to get together elsewhere; examples would be homosexuals, black militants, clergymen, young adults, civic leaders and people in political tension, according to Rev. OLSON.

The above three individuals were joined about an hour later by two middle-aged women who brought with them and distributed leaflets containing the identical message as that being distributed by the three males except that their leaflets invited readers to contact: "Miami Branch, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF), 3005 Bird Avenue, Miami, Florida". The women continued distributing their leaflets following the departure, after approximately an hour and a half, of the three males.

On May 20, 1972, Armed Forces Day, 8 males passed out anti-war leaflets for several hours outside the main gate of Homestead Air Force Base (HAFB), Homestead, Florida. The leaflets requested HAFB personnel who want to end the war immediately to communicate these sentiments "through channels" to their C.O.'s, Congressmen and Commander in Chief. Further information could be obtained, as set out in the leaflets, by contacting "Vietnam Veterans Against the War, c/o South Florida Peace Action Coalition, P.O. Box 1044, Miami, Florida". There were no incidents, no arrests and no activity carried out except the distribution of leaflets.

On May 29, 1972, Memorial Day, the VVAW - Greater Miami, assisted by VVAW members from Broward County, passed out anti-war leaflets at the Westland Shopping Center. About 15 young people, including one girl, participated in this activity. The Broward County contingent, which actually comprised a majority of the participants, arrived in two vans. One of the leaflets distributed indicated that further information could be obtained by contacting the VVAW, c/o SFPAC, P.O. Box 1044, Miami". A second leaflet set out 5 rhetorical anti-war questions in the form of an opinion survey. The survey was to be returned to SFPAC, P.O. Box 1044, Miami.

B. Demonstrations

[redacted] VVAW held a meeting at [redacted]

[redacted] They discussed plans for a demonstration at the Presidential Compound, Key Biscayne, Florida, April 9, 1972. Some favored throwing red paint on the compound fence or guardhouse, but it was generally agreed that the group did not want to take any action which would result in arrests. It was decided to obtain a stretcher and parade in front of the compound carrying a young man bandaged and splashed with red paint.

this "victim" to symbolize casualties of the Vietnam War. The group will gather about noon at the Virginia Key, nearby Key Biscayne, rock concert site, recruit demonstrators there and proceed to the Presidential Compound.

[REDACTED] 4/8/72

On April 9, 1972, from 2:00 - 3:00 PM, some 30 young men, young women and children stood or sat in the rain in front of the Presidential Compound entrance, Key Biscayne. They had assembled in the shopping center several blocks away, from where they paraded to the compound. Several demonstrators carried a large placard with the VVAW insignia. Others carried U.S. flags, one of them displayed upside down to symbolize national distress. Demonstrators also carried a young man on a stretcher with red-stained bandages. Demonstration spokesmen presented several ballots and petitions to U.S. Secret Service Agents at the compound entrance. There were no incidents or arrests.

As observed by Special Agents of the FBI,
4/9/72

On April 21, 1972, anti-war leaflets and bumper stickers were distributed outside the HAFB main gate to autoists waiting to enter HAFB. The bumper stickers read "Stop the War Now" with "New Party" in small letters at sticker bottom. The leaflets denounced the "Vietnam Fiasco" and asked readers to gather on Saturday, April 22, 1972, at 10:00 AM. at the HAFB main gate. For more information, leaflet readers were to call "PETER, 279-4105 or DON, 377-1036". There were no incidents or arrests.

An open, non-pretext telephone call to the above telephone number for "PETER" disclosed that the April 22, 1972 HAFB demonstration was to be peaceful and was being sponsored mainly by the People's Party, with the VVAW also participating.

As observed by a Special Agent of the FBI

The People's Party formerly was the New Party and claims to be of national scope. It is self-described as an alternative to the Republican and Democratic Parties. Dr. BENJAMIN SPOCK is the 1972 presidential candidate of the People's Party.

On April 22, 1972, a total of 4 young males sat, mainly, at roadside in front of the HAFB at the main gate for several hours. They carried on no picketing, had no placards and made no attempt to interfere with traffic entering HAFB. They distributed a few "Stop the War Now" bumper stickers but were obviously dispirited due to the poor turnout.

As observed by a Special Agent of the FBI
4/22/72

The SFPAC will stage an anti-war demonstration in front of the Miami office of the Honeywell Corporation on May 4, 1972. The local VVAW group may also participate.

They carried placards, chanted anti-war slogans and passed out WILPF anti-war leaflets, one of which described the weapons produced by the Honeywell Corp.

Among the demonstration participants were several young men, no more than 4, in green jungle fatigues. One of these was JIM HALE, who was interviewed at length by a local TV station.

VVAW - Greater Miami met with leaders of the Miami Convention Coalition (MCC) on June 3, 1972. C. Plans for Democratic and Republican Conventions

On February 24, 1972, Miami Snowplow held its regular weekly meeting at the Center for Dialogue, Miami. These meetings are open to the public and are attended by local police representatives and public officials, as well as by representatives of the Snowplow component groups. At this meeting, the local VVAW was represented for the first time, by BRUCE FARRELL. FARRELL said that Convention marshals would be recruited from the local VVAW, whose membership he furnished as "2,000-3,000". FARRELL indicated that no contact from the national VVAW organization has been made.

Among those in attendance at the March 23, 1972 Miami Snowplow meeting were SCOTT CAMIL, JIM HALE and BRUCE FARRELL. CAMIL said that the VVAW would assist the police whenever a demonstrator violated a law, but that he reserves the right to protest if the police were in error at any time.

At the March 30, 1972 Miami Snowplow meeting, BRUCE FARRELL announced that, according to SCOTT CAMIL, the VVAW will marshal the entire "non-delegate" area at the Democratic Convention. FARRELL continued with remarks to the effect that everyone would have to do what the VVAW wanted them to do. He said that veterans would be more respected than police. He went on to say that the number of veterans who would come to Miami Beach would be from 7,000-9,000, up from his previous estimate of 3,000-5,000. The remarks of FARRELL were not well received.

On April 9, 1972, SCOTT CAMIL spoke before the delegates to the VVAW National Steering Committee meeting at Houston, Texas, from April 7-11, 1972. CAMIL spoke for the VVAW in Florida. He said they had been preparing for the Democratic Convention and for weeks had been holding "sensitivity sessions" with the "pigs". The police had asked them to marshal and provide medics for Convention demonstrators, but they were afraid to accept because it could very easily spring into a trap. If there is any difficulty they would be blamed. Also they would be dispersed throughout the huge gathering. His group, he said, had decided to try to keep themselves and other groups as peaceful as possible for fear they would simply get their heads busted. They were very cautious about giving names because agents seem to come out of the woodwork. They would like to have 15 minutes at the Convention to show the Narmic slide show. The only civil disobedience they have considered is the possibility of digging craters around the Convention site and filling these craters, symbolically, with bodies.

The Yippies, or Youth International Party (YIP), is a loosely knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in 1968.

The Zippies are a recently formed, dissident faction of the Yippies.

The NWRO is the national grassroots organization of welfare recipients and other poor people. NWRO claims to have 400 local affiliates in 48 states and more than 150 cities. The NWRO claims to be fighting for adequate welfare payments. In the conduct of demonstrations surrounding their programs, NWRO members and supporters have frequently caused disturbances which have resulted in mass arrests and property damage.

D. Miscellaneous

According to JIM HALE, Dade County Florida VVAW organizer and leader, there is little support in this area for the protest activities of anti-war veterans. HALE said he has a list of 30 names but can't get those on the list to attend a meeting or demonstrate.

In regard to WILLIAM T. COLEMAN, JR., 612 Hortter Street, Philadelphia, Pa., indices reveal him to be identical to the well-known Philadelphia civil rights attorney. Most recently, he represented Sister JOGUES EGAN (who was associated with the Eastcon case) in oral argument before the Third Circuit Court of Appeals, Philadelphia, Pa., concerning EGAN's appeal after her indictment for having refused to testify before the Federal Grand Jury in the Eastcon matter.

COLEMAN in 1965, named by President JOHNSON as a co-chairman of White House Conference on Civil Rights; served in past as one of two State of Pennsylvania Special Deputy State Attorneys General charged by then Pennsylvania Governor SCRANTON with testing Girard College's "white only" admission policy in the courts; is graduate of University of Pennsylvania and Harvard Law School; prepared some briefs that led to U.S. Supreme Court's school desegregation ruling in 1954; was a member of Warren Commission which investigated assassination of former President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

In view of the above information available on COLEMAN, no credit and arrest check is being done on him; however, the results of credit and arrest checks on the other individuals mentioned above will be furnished Boston when completed.

DECLASSIFIED BY 9803 LOD/DA
ON 3-9-98

The Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) was founded in the spring of 1967 by six young Vietnam veterans in New York City. At the beginning of 1968, with 600 members, VVAW opened a national office, founded the first GI newspaper, "Vietnam GI," and sent close to 500 veterans into the McCarthy campaign to beat down the red baiters. After getting gassed at the Democratic convention at Chicago and caught in the general "down" of the peace movement, VVAW was nearly inactive until the moratoriums in the fall of 1969. Members of VVAW led student strikes on major campuses across the country and battled Veterans Administration Hospital authorities over threats to throw amputee Vietnam veterans out for signing anti-war petitions. At present, membership of the VVAW, nationally, consists of 8,500 members.

I. IDENTITY OF ORGANIZATION

The members also discussed Veterans Administration hospitals in order to indoctrinate the veterans who were patients of VVAW activities.

Sable announced to individuals in attendance that anyone interested in participating in an Angela Davis parade on Saturday, April 25, 1972, should meet at 306 West 39th Street at 10:30 a.m. and they would travel to the parade together.

A discussion at this meeting centered around "operation drop a bomb." Plans were finalized to drop 6,000 small leaflets out of windows located in downtown Kansas City on April 28, 1972. The leaflet criticized the Nixon Vietnamization plan and it was to represent an anti-personnel weapon dropped by the thousands in B-52 raids in Vietnam. Pycior mentioned that the Kansas City VVAW would cooperate in what was proclaimed to be a solidarity day at Cairo, Illinois, June 3, 1972.

Pycior mentioned that the VVAW was currently in the process of preparing a film regarding a mock trial of President Nixon.

[REDACTED] advised on May 19, 1972, that the city council of Kansas City heard two different factions at the city council meeting that day, one an anti-war faction, the other a pro-war faction. ReBulet to SAC, Albany dated 4/5/72 captioned "CALREP; MIDEM," copies to all offices.

In connection with the forthcoming national conventions of the major political parties scheduled for July and August of this year in Miami, Florida, the importance of prompt and thorough handling of resulting criminal violations cannot be overemphasized. Of particular importance are violations of the antiriot statutes. One of the most likely violations which may grow out of the activities prior to the conventions is that established by Section 2101, Title 18, U.S. Code which prohibits interstate travel or use of any facility of interstate commerce to incite, organize, promote, encourage, participate in or carry on a riot. Planning and other activities in that regard may be occurring at the present time and learning of such possible violations at the earliest possible date is vitally important. Referenced letter set forth instructions regarding the gathering and preservation of evidence concerning criminal violations which may occur prior to and during demonstrations related to the above-mentioned conventions.

Re: MIREP; MIDEA

Information to date indicates the following organizations have formulated plans to participate in the above-mentioned demonstrations. The office of origin concerning each of the listed organizations is indicated below.

Florida Peoples Platform Coalition	OO:Tampa
Youth International Party	OO:New York
Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice	OO:New York
National Peace Action Coalition	OO:New York
Vietnam Veterans Against the War	OO:New York
Anti-War Union	OO:WFO
Progressive Labor Party	OO:New York
SDS/Workers Student Alliance	OO:Boston
Attica Brigade	OO:New York
The Enraged Ones	OO:New York
Young Socialist Alliance	OO:New York
Student Mobilization Committee	OO:New York
Socialist Workers Party	OO:New York

Inasmuch as it would appear any prearranged violence which may occur in Miami will undoubtedly be the result of efforts of some or all of the above organizations, the leaders of these organizations will be the most likely candidates for future possible antiriot prosecution. Therefore, receiving offices should intensify coverage of the leaders of the above organizations who reside within your respective divisions to insure any indication of possible planned violence is brought to your attention immediately enabling you to open an appropriate criminal case and institute necessary investigation promptly. Specifically, a chain of evidence must be built which will be available immediately to support antiriot charges which grow out of activity relating to the conventions. Experience has demonstrated that it is difficult to obtain this type of evidence after the violation occurs. Testimony of witnesses who are capable of and available to testify and admissible physical evidence regarding the plans, intent, travel, and other activities of these leaders constituting elements of antiriot violations are absolutely essential to make the strongest prosecutive cases possible.

Contents of this communication and of referenced letter should be immediately discussed with personnel handling investigation in captioned matters and with personnel handling established sources who are in a position to furnish pertinent information regarding captioned matters and regarding the organizations mentioned above.

Considering very real threat being posed by VVAW for violence during forthcoming political conventions, particularly Republican National Convention, in Florida and considering critical time factor, Grand Jury action against VVAW could be extremely effective in thwarting plans for violence; but such action must be taken without any further delay, if it is to accomplish desired results.

ACTION:

Attached for approval is letter to Acting Assistant Attorney General, Internal Security Division, captioned "Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW), Internal Security - Revolutionary Activities" which emphasizes urgency of this situation and requests Bureau be advised at earliest possible opportunity of plans to utilize subject's testimony in Grand Jury proceedings. To further expedite matter, if approved this letter should be returned to Domestic Intelligence Division for delivery to addressee by special messenger.

short stories, essays, and poetry by United States military personnel who have served in North Vietnam. The first volume was scheduled to be entitled "Winning Hears and Minds," and another volume will be entitled, "Post-Mortem."

[redacted] also advised that Rottman gave a report on the progress of this project during the course of the VVAW Steering Committee meeting in Denver, Colorado, February 18-22, 1972. Rottman stated that the total collection would consist of seven volumes, the first six of which would contain the writings and artwork of American soldiers and the seventh writings of Vietnamese soldiers. Rottman estimated that the entire series would be approximately 12,000 pages.

[redacted] advised that Rottman subsequently stated that the first volume of this series would be available on April 5, 1972, to VVAW members at a special of $1.25 per copy.

[redacted] advised that ROTTMAN attended the VVAW National Steering Committee meeting in Denver, Colorado, on February 18-21, 1972.

[redacted] has advised that although Rottman still maintains his residence in Corrales, New Mexico, he is out of the area a considerable portion of the time and on several occasions has been out of town for periods as long as two months at a time. This source also advised that Rottman also uses P. O. Box 623, Corrales, as the mailing address for the First Casualty Press.

[redacted] also advised that during March, 1972, Rottman was working out of the New York Regional Office of the VVAW.

According to an article which appeared in the June 15, 1972, issue of "Albuquerque Journal," daily newspaper published in Albuquerque, New Mexico, Rottman appeared before a hearing held by the Democratic Party Platform Committee in Albuquerque, New Mexico, on June 14, 1972. This article quoted Rottman as stating, "The Democrats sent me to war. I am here as a citizen in hopes my testimony will change this genocide activity," and "I'm against our government...but four our country." This article also set forth when questioned by one of the committee members as to why he did not condemn Communist action in Vietnam, Rottman stated, "I don't have anything against Communists."

An advertisement captioned "VETERANS FOR PEACE," which appeared in the December 14, 1969, issue of the "Albuquerque Journal," called on President Nixon to order a faster return of United States troops from Indochina. One of the signers of this advertisement was L. U. KRestensen, whose name was preceded by an asterisk which, according to the advertisement, would indicate he had served in Vietnam.

[redacted] advised that KRestensen attended the VVAW National Steering Committee meeting held in Denver, Colorado, 1971.

On November 4, 1971, [redacted] advised that the following are the current officers of the VVAW group at the UNM:

teach-in on the subject of the war in Indochina held at UNM on the evening of May 7, 1965. The article quoted Hoyt as stating, "The U. S. cannot be the policemen of the world... and it's better to withdraw from Vietnam now than later when it'll be harder and more damaging to our prestige."

Activities

67067062 [redacted] advised that the report on the New Mexico-Arizona Region VVAW activities given at the VVAW National Steering Committee meeting at Houston, Texas, April 7-11, 1972, was given by Bill Paterson. Paterson stated all he had to say regarding the New Mexico-Arizona VVAW Region was that it had "scrambled into a half-dozen heads" and that "We are into self-preparation for whatever."

[redacted] advised that although he reported on the New Mexico-Arizona VVAW, Bill Paterson actually resides in El Paso, Texas.

[redacted] and [redacted] have all advised that the only VVAW activity at UNM during the entire 1971-1972 academic year was the sponsorship of a rally at UNM on May 11, 1972, as part of a series of demonstrations protesting President Nixon's announcement that he had ordered the mining of harbors in North Vietnam. During this rally, anti-Vietnam War petitions were distributed and speakers urged those accepting them to solicit signatures to them, calling for an end to the Vietnam War.

Views on Force and Violence

[redacted] advised that on the morning of May 11, 1972, prior to the VVAW rally, [redacted] and [redacted] voluntarily contacted the UNM Campus Police, at which time they advised a Campus Police representative that they were members of VVAW. They stated they had contacted the Campus Police because they were disturbed over a rumor which was prevalent on campus at that time that VVAW members from throughout the country had already arrived or would be arriving at Albuquerque to take part in anti-Vietnam War demonstrations. Mateczun and Vineyard assured the UNM Campus Police that this rumor was not true and any protest action organized by the VVAW group at UNM would be non-violent.

NOTE:

New York has determined that 16-man VVAW delegation departed for Paris as group on Air France flight from New York on evening of 6/25/72. VVAW had been attempting, desperately, to raise funds but until recently had very little money in treasury. In addition to basic funds for air fare for VVAW members, at last night, Air France, carrier selected by VVAW, determined that certain members of group were attempting to travel on youth fare and Air France demanded additional $1,440. VVAW officer wrote check for this amount drawn against VVAW account at Manufacturers Manover Trust. Efforts should be undertaken to determine VVAW source of funds.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW) NATIONAL STEERING COMMITTEE MEETING,
MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN
LATE JULY 1972

b2 b7D

On ~~July~~ ^{JUNE} 22, 1972, [redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the Kansas City Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) had received information that a National Steering Committee meeting is to be held in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, in late July 1972. Source advised that the objective of the meeting would be to discuss further actions to be conducted by the VVAW.

The VVAW was founded in the spring of 1967, by six young Vietnam veterans in New York City. At the beginning of 1968, with 600 members, VVAW opened a national office, founded the first GI newspaper, "Vietnam GI," and sent close to 500 veterans into the McCarthy campaign to beat down the red baiters. After getting gassed at the Democratic convention in Chicago and caught in the general "down" of the peace movement, VVAW was nearly inactive until the moratoriums in the fall of 1969. Members of VVAW led student strikes on major campuses across the country and battled Veterans Administration Hospital authorities over threats to throw amputee Vietnam veterans out for signing anti-war petitions. At present, membership of the VVAW, nationally, consists of 8,500 members.

NOTE:

On evening of 6/25/72 16-man VVAW delegation traveled to Paris to meet with North Vietnamese, Viet Cong, Cambodian and Laotian representatives. Information was developed that at least one of VVAW delegates was active member of armistices. This information being pursued vigorously in attempt to identify active member. In addition, VVAW leader wrote check payable to Air France on evening of delegation's departure for amount in excess of $1,400, and New York was instructed to contact Manufacturers Hanover Trust Company, which has VVAW account in attempt to determine source of funds. New York Office currently conducting sensitive negotiations with this bank concerning monitoring of accounts, and New York requested that no contact be made at bank at this time. This is valid point and New York being instructed to avoid contact with bank at present but to make contact when and if negotiations are settled favorably to Bureau.

YIPPIES COZY DOWN IN FLORIDA

BY DOROTHY STORCK

FOR ANYONE WHO HAS been thru the gas, Mace, political insecurity, street nihilism, park palms and malicious malapropism of the 1968 Democratic National Convention in Chicago—talking to authority folks in Miami Beach these days is like talking to teen children.

The police chief, Rocky Pomerance (formerly Arnold Pomerance of the Bronx), calls back collect to tell you that he's putting all his cops thru sensitivity sessions at the university.

Jeff Nightbird calls back not collect. He's phoning from the five-room air-conditioned suite on posh Lincoln Road where the Youth International Party has its headquarters.

In the bad old days when Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman thought up the Yippies as a cultural joke, administration jowls felt slack at the sight of them. Right before the teeth behind the jowls started to grind.

Now Jeff Nightbird informs you he is meeting tomorrow with "the governor's commission" to discuss appropriate campaigns.

YIPPIES, GAY LIB, VIET NAM vets for peace, Southern Christian Leadership Conference — in all a nine-part grouping that hopes to bring in between 10,000 and 100,000 people to the conventions—have been meeting comfortably with officialdom.

Miami Beach and Dade County officials refer to the proposed hordes with unflinching politeness as "nondelegate visitors."

The girl who answer the Yippie phone in Nightbird's office bubbles happily that "Chuck" has been calling every day "to see that everything's all right."

Chuck, it turns out, is Charles (Call no Chuck) Hall, the mayor of Miami Beach, a former National U. language protestor.

Rep. Charles J. [unclear] that perennial of some-but-socked-about New Deal liberal, has been putting in and out of the young folks' meetings.

And heading the governor's commission to make sure that we don't have anything like Chicago in 1968 is none other than Earle Soffer, the Sal Thorek of Miami Beach, who is best known for creating the Orange Bowl and then filling it with teams, games, drama, midgets and balloons floating out of the loud-speaker system during halftime.

THE YIPPIES, Convention '68 are planning soft music and erudite speeches in the park. "We don't want to make this a political Woodstock," Nightbird cautions.

Pomerance, who had been called the tiddling man's cop, says that the rhetoric of the Movement has varied considerably since 1963.

He already has designated an area near the new school hall for demonstrators, built a fence around it, and tactfully covered the fence with hibiscus blossoms.

"I believe in the First Amendment," Pomerance says. "So do these kids. We can work with each other."

His 250-man force has taken a mandatory course in constitutional law and philosophy of dissent—for which they received four college credits.

There have been sensitivity sessions at the now-crappy Miami Beach High School with policemen and members of the Yippies and the Viet Vets Against the War.

SCOTT CAMILL, A TWICE decorated ex-Marine who is heading the Viet Vets Against the War Miami office, suggested the sessions.

"We are not 'hippies.' Policemen are not pigs," Camill said. "We've got to take the dehumanization out of things."

Camill, whose father has been on the Miami police force for 18 years, has some father credentials to lure cops and bearded youths into handholding sessions. He was in charge of riot control training for the 10th Marine Regiment at Camp Lejeune, N. C. in 1969.

"The trouble in Chicago was that nobody looked at each other. Just the stereotypes," Camill said.

Rocky Pomerance is even talking about the possibility of having his men around the convention center late nights, Mace and nightclubs closed at the convention center.

—as some veteran Chicago cops might assume—naïveté.

Homerance visited Chicago two weeks ago to match notes. He spoke briefly with Chicago police Supt. James Conlisk. While the two police chiefs obviously have different philosophies of enforcement, Homerance has his contingency plans if sweet reasonableness should fail.

Should his need develop, he can deploy something like 500 Miami, Dade County, Florida Highway Patrol officers and unspecified numbers of Florida National Guard troops put under his overall command by Gov. Reubin Askew.

In addition, the city will be saturated by agents from 10 federal agencies, including the Secret Service, FBI, Bureau of Narcotics and the Army's military intelligence and bomb control.

EVERYBODY AGREES that everybody else is trying almost frantically to "avoid hassles." At least, for the Democratic convention. The later Republican convention may be quite another thing.

"The way we feel about the Democratic convention," says Scott Camil, "is that any violence can only hurt our cause and help Nixon. We are all basically behind the things McGovern is asking for, altho we don't want to back a man but a platform."

The early arrivals at the Viet vets headquarters are already starting to make the rounds and introduce themselves to the Florida delegates. The vets plan to lobby for peace, amnesty and a $80-billion defense budget cut. They will be assigned individual delegations as they arrive.

The old salt Yippie leaders, Abbie Hoffman and Jerry Rubin, have already gone in record as endorsing McGovern.

Rubin has been in and out of the Miami office—once to debate conservative lawyer and former mayoral candidate Ellis Rubin.

Ellis Rubin has formed Operation Pack-bone, an outfit dedicated to driving out "Yippies, hippies and dippies" and bringing in hard-hats and Boy Scouts instead to tent under the palm trees.

Young Rubin debated the older Rubin on radio—from which program Ellis promptly stalked as Jerry uttered an unairable word. Ellis Rubin is Jerry Rubin's uncle—which may give insight into why Jerry left home and also makes you wonder if all the descending Yippies will run into retired Miami Beach relatives and end up being scolded and fed chicken soup.

MAYOR (CALL me Chuck) Hall is having more problems with his city council at the Unlike Chicago, the Miami Beach council is not run by the mayor.

"I only have one vote," Council Hall laments, "and the other six members keep voting against me when it comes to giving the kids a campaign site."

The Miami Beach council, predominantly businessmen with hotel interests and a steady tourist trade, were not particularly charmed to begin with at the idea of having two political conventions on home turf.

The thought of filling up the manicured parks with shaggy, non-paying kids is causing middle-aged indignation in council chambers.

Mayor Hall admits the councilmen are holding off until the last minute, hoping the whole thing will go away. "But I just got another vote today," the mayor said. "They're going to have to come around and vote on the sites."

"They'd better," Neighborhood says grimly. "And make provision for water and sanitary facilities too, or we'll all troop in and use the johns in their hotels. And we don't want to take the parks away from the old people who sit in the sun in sedan age in Miami Beach 65 years. We went to camp on the golf course where the rich people play."

SCOTT CAMIL, WITH Marine realism, points out that the delay in naming the campsites is just going to cause confusion—"Which is one thing we don't want. But I've got to start making deployment plans for the vets coming down here."

Ray Goode, Dade County manager, has already contacted the Army and Civil Defense units to put in toilet and water facilities for the open-air nondelegates. "The kids have agreed to cut out of here for the five weeks between conventions," he said. "Everything's set, waiting for the city council to wake up."

Nobody, not even the Yippies, is talking much yet about activities planned during the Republican convention in August. But Camil predicts that the more serious protesters—and certainly the vets—will be arriving for that one.

There is already a San Diego Convention Coalition—redubbed Miami CC since the site switch—setting up to deal directly with the Republicans. "There will be marches in August," Camil says, a bit worriedly.

Meanwhile, in the middle of the latest city council vote, Mayor Hall decided to ease his indigestion with a gourmet lunch in a posh ocean-front hotel which is destined to be Democratic National headquarters and the press center.
